

2015 Tablas Creek Rose Dianthus

Sporting a deeper ruby color (almost Tavel like), the Mourvedre dominated 2015 Rose Dianthus offers a rich, almost meaty style in its ripe raspberry, black cherry, licorice and garrigue scented personality. While there's plenty of savoriness on the nose, this beauty hits the palate with a fabulous, medium-bodied textured that carries tons of fruit while never seemingly heavy or cumbersome. This is a classic food Rosé that will shine at the dinner table and drink well for a year or so.

- Jeb Dunnuck (May, 2016)